Who can’t use aerosure?

REVITIVE Aerosure should not be used by people who:

- Are pregnant
- Have epilepsy
- Have acute sinusitis or an active nosebleed
- Are coughing up blood (active haemoptysis)
- Currently have or previously had a collapsed lung (Pneumothorax)
- Currently have a blood clot in the blood vessels in the lungs (Pulmonary Embolism)
- Have enlarged veins in the walls of the oesophagus (oesophageal varices)
- Have abnormally high pressure in the skull and brain (raised intracranial pressure)
- Have recently had thoracic (chest) or upper gastro-intestinal tract (duodenum, stomach, and oesophagus) surgery or trauma until completely healed
- Have abnormally high or low blood pressure, very slow or very fast heart rate (haemodynamic instability), including severe right-sided heart failure with hypotension

When Using Aerosure do I Breathe out of my nose or mouth?

You need to breathe in and out through your mouth to receive the benefits of using the device.

Do I have to breathe deeply when using Aerosure?

Aerosure is electrically driven, although some additional effort is required.

Who qualifies to buy Aerosure VAT- free?

REVITIVE Aerosure is a registered medical device it means if you have been diagnosed with a long-term illness or disability like COPD or bronchiectasis you qualify for VAT exemption.